FOR COLD AND GRIPPE DOCTORS FIND REMEDY

Physicians and druggists are elated over the fact that they have at last found a genuine and dependable remedy for colds, sore throat and influenza. For years they have depended chiefly upon the old style calomel, which is certainly fine, but unfortunately many people would not take it because of its nauseating and dangerous qualities.

Now that the pharmaceutical chemists have perfected a nauseous calomel, called "Calotabs" whose medicinal virtues are vastly improved, the doctors and druggists are claiming that Calotabs are the ideal remedy to abort a cold over night and cut short an attack of sore throat or influenza. They are also finding it most effective as the first step in the treatment of pneumonia.

One Calotab on the tongue at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating or your work and pleasure.

The next morning your cold has vanished and your whole system is purified and refreshed. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages; price thirty-five cents. Your druggist recommends and guarantees them by refunding the price if you are not delighted.—(Adv.)

BIG LIQUOR STEAL TO BE THOROUGHLY PROBED

VALUABLE INFORMATION READY FOR GRAND JURY.

Criminal Court convenes on Dec. 9—Welch Case May Be Disposed of.

When the Hamilton county grand jury meets next Tuesday there will be a thorough investigation of the larceny of about $9,000 worth of liquor from Southern railway freight trains. In connection with the matter, Sam Jones, former head of the Beaver club; two railroad men employed by the Southern; and a chauffeur were placed under arrest. Attorney George W. Chambliss is of the opinion that the liquor was handled in a systematic manner and that code messages played an important part in the scheme. Valuable information will be placed in the hands of the grand jury.

The inquisitorial body will be in session three or four days, as there are a number of matters to be investigated.

Criminal court opens on Monday, Dec. 9, and the case of Millard Simpson, who is charged with murder, will be disposed of the first thing. Simpson is alleged to have shot his wife to death in Carr street alley, after which he fled.

During the administration of Attorney Chambliss five persons have been indicted for murder, trial and conviction. In two old murder cases there was a conviction and an acquittal. The state has been ready in the cases that have come up and has not asked for any continuance of murder trials.

Sam D. Welch, charged with the killing of Will Massengale during a riot on Market street on a memorable Sunday afternoon when the street car men were on strike, will probably be tried within the next few weeks. A motion for a change of venue was not acted upon, and the indications are that Welch will be tried here.

STANDARD MAINTAINED
May Robson's Play Pleases on Thanksgiving.

May Robson, appearing at the Lyric yesterday in "A Little Bit Old Fashioned" maintained the high standard which has been set by the attractions offered to the Chattanooga Public since "Bringing Up Father" and "Mutt and Jeff" went on their unimpaired way. Miss Robson's vehicle abounded in bright and pleasant lines and the acting of the whole cast was good.

OUT FOR TREASURER
Hon. Hill McAllister Will Oppose Porter Dunlap For State Office.

Nashville, Nov. 28.—Hon. Hill McAllister, chairman of the state Democratic executive committee and manager of Judge Roberts' campaign in his contest for governor, is to oppose the Hon. Porter Dunlap in his race for re-election as treasurer of the state. The matter will be in the hands of the general assembly, or rather the Democratic caucus. Both men are gentlemen of the highest type and each will be sure to have his following in the legislature.

with correspondingly strong outside influences. More about the line-up will be learned when the members of the general assembly are on the ground a few days before the meeting date early in January, but just at this juncture the friends of the two candidates appear to be concerning themselves most with time, to whom the attitude of the Davidson and Shelby delegations. With these two large delegations divided, the situation would not be in any wise relieved of its doubtful features.

SUPT. ABEL WILL BE CANDIDATE AGAIN

SAYS HE IS MAKING PLANS TO RETURN

Has Inaugurated Plans and Policies Which He Wishes to Carry Through.

In talking of the coming election in January, Supt. J. W. Abel of the Hamilton County school, states that he is making his plans for another year in the position of superintendent of the schools. Mr. Abel says that heretofore the other heads of this department have held the place from four to six years and that in an office of this kind one can only get started in a term of two years. He declares that he has just begun to inaugurate plans into the school system that he should like to see carried out, and that it would be impossible to anything like finish the general plans of the work in such a short time. He also remarked that the election came at a very inopportune time for the election of a superintendent as it is right in the middle of a school term. This makes it necessary for a new person, if elected, to come right in and make an effort to carry on the school program that he is entirely unacquainted with without any chance to familiarize himself with it.

In speaking of some of the things included on this program that he had been very much interested in and wishes to see worked out in a practical way, he mentioned the standardizing of salaries for teachers and principals. Mr. Abel declared that when he went into office the salaries of both the principals and teachers were far from being on a standard basis. For example he pointed out that the principals of schoolhouses of three rooms were being paid anywhere from $55 up to $95 per month, and that in many cases the smaller salaries were being paid to principals who were the most capable.

Mr. Abel has just returned from a visit to the school in the north end of the county and says that he found that a number of the school children are out, and that the main excuse given now is the influenza epidemic. Feeling confident that this is practically over in most every section of the county, Mr. Abel has arranged for a campaign to be started at once to get the children back in school. He stated that he found in a number of incidents that the parents were merely giving the influenza epidemic as an excuse for keeping their children out of school, and in some cases they didn't care whether they returned to school or not.

A copy of the school census is being sent out to all of the principals throughout the county with instructions for the names of the pupils who are out of school to be checked up and returned to the office at once. These names will be turned over to Probation Officer C. B. Russell, and unless there is some legitimate reason given why the child should be kept out of school, the children back at once.

WHITE STAR LINERS LOST.
Ten Large Steamers, Total War Losses.

New York, Nov. 28.—Ten large steamships, aggregating 190,375 gross tons, were lost during the war, it was learned here today. Among these was the Britannic, 40,128 gross tons, torpedoed in the Aegean sea in 1916, shortly after completion, while in British government service as a hospital ship.

CENTRAL HIGH WINS CLOSE CONTEST

BARELY BEATS TRADITIONAL RIVAL.

For First Time in Years County Eleven Downs Maroon and White.

Central high school, from the first time in five years, defeated her traditional rival, Chattanooga High, on the gridiron. In a hard-fought contest, during which the ball was in the county school's territory a large part of the time, the Purple and Gold came out victor by the close score of 6 to 0.

During the first half the ball seemed back and forth, more or less, with the beginning of the third quarter Chattanooga High picked up, and from then on the Maroon played such an excellent hand that it seemed as if a goal could hardly be scored against the gridlocks.

Susdorf was easily the stellar performer for Chattanooga High, especially in the third and fourth quarters. The plucky old half not only made consistent gains around the ends, but also through the line, seemingly always to find a hole in the Central string. He received forward passes with such ease and precision that gains of from five to ten yards resulted very frequently. His playing for the most part, was almost perfect. The game was a 90-yard run for the heavy runner can never be explained. Suffice to say that he extricated himself from the confusion and made speedily the goal posts, outdistancing all pursuers.

The goal was not kicked, leaving the score at 6 to 0. For the remainder of the game Central fought to prevent City high's scoring. Had it not been for the splendid fighting qualities displayed by Central at the last, every player seeing a vision of the first victory of the City eleven in five years. Central could not have held City high knocked at the goal continually, and the last quarter ended with Central defending her 30-yard line.

City high gave an exhibition of play similar to that of McClellan in the Bayou fracas. While the Blue and White ran it over on their opponents completely as far as actual play was concerned, they failed to score in the critical moments. Just as Baylor strength ahead a possible chance at the championship, so Central's warriors fought for a victory that to them meant more than a championship would mean without it.

In the last few minutes of play it looked as if the Maroon would score. A substitute, Heron, sent in by Central, helped state to end all difficult. Central's team, while not having the services of a regular coach, has been drilled in the picknir art by Charley Thompson and "Mike" Fenton, former star athletes at Central in basketball and football, respectively.

ENGINEER TEAM WINS
Wallops Replacement Aggregation by Heavy Score.

The Camp Forrest football team continued its string of victories Thursday morning by defeating the replacement group of Camp Greenleaf 51 to 8. The game was played in Ogletree "circle" and was seen by between 17,000 to 20,000 spectators in connection with the big field meet.

A big feature of the game was a drop-kick by Wolf, a former Pennsylvania man, playing quarter for the engineer aggregation. The lone touchdown of the replacement group was made in the first few minutes of play. After this the Camp Forrest string tightened up and started marching down the field until a total of 51 failures were to their credit.

The engineers seemed to have developed a first-class gridiron team and have not lost a game yet. They bested the quartermaster team by the score of 7 to 0 and whitewashed the development battalion of Camp Greenleaf with a total of 39 counters. Officials for Thursday's game were: Dunne, referee; Hansen, head-lineman; Bland, umpire.

PERUVIAN CONSUL ARRIVES.
Lima, Peru, Nov. 28.—Sagor H. H. Lora, the Peruvian consul who fled from Iquique, Chile, during the disorders there last week, arrived in Lima today. There were no manifestations on the part of the Peruvians and a crowd of less than 100 persons welcomed him.

It is reported that anti-Peruvian demonstrations continue in Santiago and Valparaiso. Iquique newspapers received here give details of the anti-Peruvian outbreak there and show that during the trouble British and French establishments were attacked. This fact is viewed in Lima as lending ground to the belief that German agitators were involved in the Iquique affair.

RIPLING RHYMES
By Walt Mason

Great Days.
Things are so fast these fateful days, we are not jaded by any news; the naught so strange that can amaze, or make us tremble in our shoes. We push ourselves around the town, and hear the latest tidings there; some mighty king has lost his crown; we say, "Well, well," or "I declare!" We hear of thrones that no more of captains on their benched knees, and hasten to the grocer's store to see just what he asks for cheese. An ancient monarchy expires; we hear the news and say, "By jings!" and then we talk of rubber tires, and gasoline and kindred things. We've heard so many wondrous tales of streams of gore and wholesale death, the most exciting rumor falls to make us draw a longer breath. Perhaps in coming peaceful years we'll get our old-time peace again, and learn once more to sprinle tears and shudder at a tale of pain. We see the unknown haul away a load of scepters, thrones and crowns, and beef because we have to pay high prices for our handkerchiefs. We've no perspective any more; we cannot grasp the news we read; we sit around the Blue Front store, and let our whiskers go to seed.
